

Lesson 21 Lost Love

Daedalus & Icarus

After building the Labyrinth of Knossos , Daedalus invented wings of feathers and wax to escape Crete with his son Icarus , who fell to his death by flying too close to the sun .

Eros / Cupid

struck himself

with his own arrow and fell in love with Princess Psyche, whom he visited invisibly. When she discovered who he was as he slept, he awoke and left her.

3. Echo & Narcissus

Hera cursed the chatty nymph Echo to repeat the last words of others. Echo fell in love with the handsome man Narcissus. He cruelly ignored her, leaving her to gradually fade away until only her voice was left.

The gods punished him by making him fall in love with his reflection.
